ORIENTATION HELD FOR NEW STUDENTS

"Student Support Needed In Activities," Says Rand At Meeting

On October 1st an assembly of some 300 new students met in the school auditorium for a program of orientation to the various extra-curricular activities.

Harry Burrough, Son Of Newsboys' Foundation Head Student Here

Harry E. Burrough, Jr., son of the late Harry E. Burrough, who established the Newsboys' Foundation here in Boston, is now a student at Suffolk University.

Harry's father, Harry Sr., was when he died a very prominent and wealthy man. A self-made man, his life story is one of rags to riches—and ending, wide fame.

Harry Sr. began his career as a newsboy on the streets of Boston. Later he sold exclusively to employees of the State House. It was about this time, Harry Jr. related, that his father won a scholarship from the Boston Teachers to come here to Suffolk. It took him just a year and a half to pass the Bar. After this he went to B.U. for his Masters Degree and to Harvard for his Doctor Of Law Degree. Harry Jr. continued, "Then he began to practice law."

In 1927 Harry Sr. established the Newsboys' Foundation. The purpose of this foundation, says Harry Jr., "is to bridge the gap between life in the street and the cultural aspects of life. The institution is charitable, open to all newsboys and street traders."

In 1935, Harry Sr. started a summer camp in Poland, Maine called Agassiz Village. Boys from all the social agencies in Boston are sent there as well as many boys from the foundation.

Harry Sr. also wrote two books. One called "Boys In Men's Shoes" is used by Simmons College and by many other colleges as a text book.

On three occasions, Harry Sr. was asked to appear on radio programs. Twice for "Hobbs Lobby" and once for "We the People."

In 1944 Harry Sr. was commended for his achievements as a social worker by an article in the "Reader's Digest." In 1946 he was mentioned in "Who's Who in America."

Burrough was a chairman of the board of trustees of the Mass. Bar Association.

Harry Burrough Jr. graduated in Sept. '45 from Tilton High School and then entered Norwich Military Academy. He stayed there a year and a half and then came to Suffolk. He is in the College of Liberal Arts.

Students' Council president, Larry Rand, opened the program. He pointed out that the best way of getting things accomplished was for the students to support the various school activities. Student Activities Director, Mr. Malette, emphasized Rand's views.

Mr. Law, Director of Athletics, last year gave the new students an overall picture of sports activities. Mr. Law said, "Last year we found ourselves in a tough spot. But our soccer team won district honors. Our basketball team showed great promise, which we hope they will capitalize on this year with the new material on hand. After losing their first game in basketball, they went through an undefeated schedule. Our hockey team, which practices in the early morning hours, showed out among the best and this year they should be even greater than last."

Mr. Law went on to describe the athletic program which he found the new student material would strengthen.

Mr. Rand next called upon Mr. Sam Gilman and Mr. Tim MacDonnell to give a talk on the National Students Association.

They explained that the NSA was organized to stimulate certain educational movements throughout the nation.

McDonald Elected To Third Highest Office In N.S.A.

Thomas J. McDonald and Samson Gilman, delegates of the National Students Association, recently represented 100,000 college students of Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine at the N.S.A. convention at Madison, Wisconsin.

McDonald was elected Committee of Domestic Student Affairs for the New England area. McDonald's position, which is the third highest elective office in the nation, carries with it investigation of all phases of student council activities and educational opportunities in this area.

This office also concerns itself in giving aid to various student governments so that they might obtain improvements in their respective schools. To attempt to equalize educational opportunities for all people and to stigmatize the practice of discrimination on the basis of race, color, creed and sex, which he is so well known.

New Typewriters Purchased For S.U. Newsmen

Staccato reports will soon be heard coming from behind the closed door of Room 13. Don't jump to conclusions! This isn't an execution chamber where vengeful students (bunkies) are liquidating covering instructors (bunkers). Instead, it is the room which houses forty recently-purchased typewriters.

Journalism students will be beating a rapid tattoo on keys that play a music all their own.

Social Club To Hold Hobo Dance Nov. 1

Novel Affair To Be Held In Library With Doughnuts And Cider Plentiful

BY C. K. AVERY

After long summer planning by former student Activities director, Mr. Fiorillo, and club members, the S.U. Social Club officially announced Saturday night, November 1st, as the first gala night on their active social calendar for this school year.

Held In Library

On that evening a Hobo Dance will be held in S.U.'s spacious library. Here, students, dressed as Hoboes, may "hump" colorful patches to the graceful rhythm of modern music.

Under the present Activities Director Mr. Malette, the Social Club and all its members have gathered together to open the new Fall semester by sponsoring this interesting event, which has been requested by many of the students.

The Social Club, faced with the task of creating a college social program, is going all out in its plans for a successful "Hobo Dance," which it hopes will prove similar affairs.

Cider And Doughnuts
With the gracious permission of Miss Newsome, S.U. Librarian, the Social Club obtained the facilities.

VA To Speed Up Checks For Vets

Veterans Administration is completing plans to speed up benefits for some 1,325,000 World War II veterans that have enrolled in colleges and universities this fall.

The enrollment set a new record of at least 10 per cent over the previous high enrollment of 1,200,000 last April and will tax the facilities of VA in qualifying the veterans for subsistence allowances.

Although no serious delays in payment of subsistence allowances are anticipated, VA is advising student-veterans to be able to meet personal financial obligation for at least the first six weeks of the fall term.

In most cases, the veterans should receive their first subsistence check early in November. The time lapse between date of enrollment and receipt of the first check involves two factors. First, a veteran generally is not entitled to receive a subsistence allowance until he has been in training for 30 days. Secondly, all checks are mailed normally on the first of the month, covering the allowance due for the previous month. Therefore, a veteran enrolling during the latter part of September ordinarily would not receive his first check any earlier than the first of November.

The initial check will include all subsistence allowances due the veteran from the date of enrollment through the end of the first full subsistence period.

Kerensky To Speak Here October 22

Alexander Kerensky, the prominent Russian orator and liberal, has embarked to speak at Suffolk on Wednesday, October 22. This will undoubtedly be an occasion that no one will want to miss.

Mr. Kerensky will long be remembered as one of Russia's foremost champions of democracy. In many important democratic reforms in May 1917 Mr. Kerensky assumed the duties of Minister of War and it is he who organized the last Russian offensive against Germany. Shortly after this, having subdued Lenin's first revolutionary uprising, Mr. Kerensky became president of the Provisional Government and Commander-in-Chief of the army. Five months later Lenin overthrew the Provisional Government and made a separate peace with Germany.

Declared an outlaw by the Bolsheviks and with a price on his head, Mr. Kerensky remained in hiding in Russia until June 1918 when he succeeded in making his escape.

He became Vice-president and Minister of Justice of the newly formed Revolutionary Provisional

ANTIDOTE FOR A THIRD PARTY

Finally the people's choirs limped home on tired tongues; they had talked a great fight. Their record of achievements makes them eligible for the "Men of Myopic Distinction" award. Their most far-sighted planning was the procuring of round-trip train tickets.

And the housing shortage! Remember the slogan "Fifteen per cent or bust!"?

POLITICAL VIEWS FROM BEACON HILL

If a veteran desires to pay his premiums at a VA Collection unit near his school, he is urged to give his permanent address, in order that the remittance may be forwarded and his insurance account properly credited at the VA Branch Office in his home area.

Those classes, here at Suffolk which have the largest over-enrollment, have just been announced by the Dean's Office.

The bottom of this list are English Literature (English 2.7), with 119, General Psychology (Psychology 1.1), with 184, and Elements of Spanish (Spanish 1.9) with enrollment of 119.

'Hard Hit' By High Prices Says AVC

Chapter 888 of the American

Veteran Committee, or in short the Suffolk Chapter, has offered its share in contributing to the

AVC College Survey on the Cost of Living. The Suffolk Survey was conducted in the early Spring and showed on a cross section poll of 200 students that the cost of living expenses for a single veteran per month came to $115. For the married veteran the cost ran into the $127 figure. The recent National

Report on the combined college

surveys showed that the monthly living cost for unmarried college students came to $104.00. For the married students, the figure hit the staggering sum of $157.00.

The AVC Bill, HR 870, introduced by Miss Edith Nourse Rogers,

Congresswoman from

Vermont, called for an increase in $108 for unmarried students and an increase of $125 for married students. Due to personality conflicts more than anything else, this bill never came of the committee.

S1204 and HR4212 both identical bills which provide for an increase to $23 for vets with no dependents

$105 with one dependent, and $120

for more than one dependent.

House, but has not yet passed the

EXCLUSIVE INSIDE INTERVIEWS

BY WALTER F. GALLAGHER, JR.

Not long ago on a July afternoon in Karachi India, I walked unobtrusively into India's version of the Copsey Plaza, the summer home of Mohammed Ali Jinnah, head of the Modern League and devotedly hailed by his following of ninety million as 'the Savior of Islam'—born on Christmas day, 1876. Literally speaking, he was then the officer employed in the distribution of 'political aims'.

During that time blood had been running down the gutters of the streets of Calcutta and points west over a religious dispute between the Muslims and the Hindus. The man I was facing, in clothes good enough to have sprung from Lexington on Chancery street was far more than acceptable for the summer that he represented, who were not only weary of Britain, but skittish of the "tyranny" of the majority, namely, the Hindus. And with eyes that could discern the population of a half-million, Jinnah had seen, the necessity—

—a Muslim State of Pakistan, a separate nation altogether from the Hindus, which would, as Jinnah admitted, include two-thirds of India's arid land.

Naturally I was puzzled to think that the Muslims wanted to divide but what amounted to Texas with temperamental Camels. I asked

"Student Support Needed In Activities," Says Rand At Meeting

On October 1st an assembly of some 300 new students met in the school auditorium for a program of orientation to the various extra-curricular activities.

Harry Burrough, Son Of Newsboys' Foundation Head Student Here

Harry E. Burrough, Jr., son of the late Harry E. Burrough who established the Newsboys' Foundation here in Boston, is now a student at Suffolk University. "I came here because it was my father's alma mater and because Suffolk is a very progressive school," he said.

Harry's father, Harry Sr., was where he died a very prominent and wealthy man. A well made man, his life story is one of rags to riches and nation wide fame.

Harry Sr. began his career as a newsboy on the streets of Boston. Later he sold exclusively to employees of the State House. "It was about that time," Harry Jr. related, "that my father won a scholarship from the Boston Traveler to come here to Suffolk. He took him just a year and a half to pass the Bar. After this he went to Harvard for his Doctor of Law Degree." Harry Jr. continued, "Then he began to practice law."

In 1927 Harry Sr. established the Newsboys' Foundation. The purpose of this foundation, Harry Jr., "is to bridge the gap between life in the street and the cultural aspects of life. The institution is charitable open to all newsboys and street traders."

In 1933 Harry Sr. started a summer camp in Poland, Maine called Agassiz Village. Boys from all the social agencies in Boston are sent there as well as many boys from the foundation.

Harry Sr. also wrote two books. One called "Boys In My Shoes" is used by Simmons College and by many other colleges as a textbook.

On these occasions, Harry Sr. was asked to appear on radio programs. Twice for "Hobbs Lobby" and once for "The Daily People."

In 1944 Harry Sr. was commended for his achievements as a social worker by an article in the "Reader's Digest" in 1946 he was mentioned in "Who's Who in America."

Burrough was a chairman of the board of trustees of the May Bar Association.

Harry Burrough Jr. graduated in Sept. 45 from Tilton High School and then entered New York Military Academy. He stayed there a year and a half and then came to Suffolk. He is in the College of Liberal Arts.

Student Council president, Harry Rand, opened the program. He pointed out that the best way of getting things accomplished was for the students to support the various school activities. Student Activities Director, Mr. Malette emphasized Rand's views.

Mr. Law, Director of Athletics, last year gave the new students an overall picture of sports activities. Mr. Law said, "Last year we found ourselves in a tough spot. But our sports team won district honors. Our basketball team showed great promise which we hope they will capitalize on this year with the new material on hand. After being their first year, the basketball team went through an undefeated schedule. Our hockey team which practices in the early morning hours, stood out among the best and this year they should be even greater than last year."

Mr. Law went on to describe the athletic program which he hoped the new talented material would strengthen.

Mr. Rand next called upon Mr. Sam Gilman and Mr. Tom MacDonnell to give a talk on the National Students Aspiration. They explained that the NSA was organized to stimulate certain educational movements throughout the nation.

McDonald Elected To Third Highest Office In N.S.A.

Thomas J. McDonald and Sam Gilman delegates of the National Students Aspiration, recently represented 100,000 college students of Massachusetts. McDonald, New Hampshire, and Miller of the NSA convention at Madison Wisconsin.

McDonald was elected Chairman of Domestic Student Affairs for the New England area. McDonald, Madison, which is the third highest elective office in the region, warrants investigation of all phases of student council activities and educational opportunities.

This office also concerns itself in giving aid to various student governments so that they might obtain improvements in their respective schools. He attempted to create educational opportunities for all people and to terminate the practice of discrimination on the basis of race, color, creed, and political belief are other functions of McDonald's office. New Typewriters Purchased For S.U. Newsmen

Students reports will soon be heard coming from behind the closed door of Room 13.

Don't jump to conclusions! This isn't an execution chamber where venereal students (dunkers) are liquidating cowering instructors (dunkers). Instead, it is the room which houses forty recently-purchased typewriters.

Journalism students will be getting a rapid tattoo on keys that play a music all their own.

Social Club To Hold Hobo Dance Nov. 1

Novel Affair To Be Held In Library With Doughnuts And Cider Plentiful

BY C. K. AVERY

After long summer planning by former Student Activities director, Mr. Florio, and club members, the S.U. Social Club officially announced Saturday night, November 1st, as the first gala night on their active social calendar for this school year.

Held In Library

On that evening a Hobo Dance will be held in S.U.'s spacious library. Here, students, dressed as Hoboes, may bump colorful patches to the graceful rhythm of modern music.

Under the present Activities Director Mr. Malette, the Social Club and all its members have gathered together to open the new Fall semester by sponsoring this interesting event, which has been requested by many of the students.

The Social Club, faced with the task of creating a college social program to bring all out to it, plans for a successful novelty dance which it hopes will foster similar affairs.

VA To Speed Up Checks For Vets

Veterans Administration is completing plans to speed up benefits for some 1,325,000 World War II veterans that have enrolled in colleges and universities this fall.

The enrollment set a new record of at least 10 per cent over the previous high enrollment of 1,200,000 last April and will tax the facilities of VA in qualifying the veterans for subsistence allowances.

Although no serious delays in payment of subsistence allowances are anticipated, VA is advising student-veterans to be able to meet personal financial obligations for at least the first six weeks of the fall term.

In most cases, the veterans should receive their first subsistence check early in November. The time lapse between date of enrollment and receipt of the first check involves two factors. First, a veteran generally is not entitled to this having earned Lenin's first to receive a subsistence allowance—until he has been in training for 30 days. Secondly, all checks are mailed normally on the first of the month, covering the allowances due for the previous month. Therefore, a veteran enrolling and making a separate check with during the latter part of September ordinarily would not receive his first check until the first of November.

The initial check will include the subsistence allowances due for the veteran from the date of enrollment through the end of the first full subsistence period.

Kerensky To Speak Here October 22

Alexander Kerensky (the prominent Russian orator and liberal) has consented to speak at Suffolk on Wednesday, October 22. This will undoubtedly be an occasion that no one will want to miss.

Mr. Kerensky will long be remembered as one of Russia's foremost champions of democracy. In fact, that democratic interval in Russian history between the collapse of the Romanoff dynasty and the Bolshevik revolution has come to be known as the "Kerensky period."

A prominent lawyer and leader of the Democratic Movement, Kerensky was elected to the state Duma in 1912. He took an active part in political affairs and earned an enviable reputation as an orator and a popular leader. In 1917, after the overthrow of the Monarchy, Mr. Kerensky embarked upon the brief but brilliant career of Prime Minister of the Provisional Government.

He became Vice-president and Minister of Justice of the newly formed Revolutionary Provisional Government which, in the short period of its existence, introduced many important democratic reforms. In May 1917, Mr. Kerensky assumed the duties of Minister of War and it is he who organized the last Russian offensive against Germany. Shortly after this, having subdued Lenin's first revolutionary uprising, Mr. Kerensky became president of the Provisional Government and Commander-in-Chief of the army. Five months later, Lenin overthrew the Provisional Government and made a separate peace with Germany.

Ping Pong

All candidates for the Suffolk County basketball squad attend a great tournament is expected for the first practice that will take place in the early October and Coach Lane will devote the next two months in looking over all of the talent before selecting his squad.

Temporarily at least the week candidate for basketball practice

Within the next 2 weeks an all-star ping pong team will be selected after an elimination round robin tournament. The winning team will represent Suffolk in Great Britain and Boston tournaments. Both single and doubles teams will represent the college. A schedule of opponents is in the making and will be released at a later date.

To drive this final nail, when I cabled one of the Boston papers that I had a word on Jinnah offering it, they answered, tersely, "Never heard of him." On the 11th of last month, Jinnah was named first President of the Moslem State of Pakistan by the Constitu-

Establishment of a new separate department of athletic and physical education is another one of MaLette's future plans.

On his few brief visits to the institution during the past year, Mr. MaLette feels confident that he will do a real job for this bunch of fellows who are a fine bunch of fellows who are plenty of spirit and enthusiasm.

Good luck to you, Hank MaLette.

The rate of payment will be authorized for the full enrollment period certified to VA by the institutions and will remain unchanged unless subsequent evidence justifies an adjustment.

NSA To Represent 2 Million Students

National Students Association is a nation-wide representative of the community of American college students. It will bring to American college students the benefits of regional and national cooperation on many phases of educational problems and activities. It will satisfy the significant and long-felt need for responsible representation of American college students in the ever-growing sphere of international students activity.

Students To Vote On Constitution

The student body will vote immediately after mid-semester exams to amend the Student Council constitution. The proposed amendment, which is being posted on the council bulletin board for fourteen class days, reads as follows:

1. That minutes of every Student Council meeting be made public and displayed conspicuously.
2. That Student Council meetings be open to all students.
3. That the manner in which every member of the Student Council votes be published in the minutes.

NSA
The proposed amendment, which must be ratified by two-thirds of those voting was received in Student Council by a legal petition of two hundred students. The council voted to post statements from the constitution which may aid in clarifying student opinion on the question. Simon Gilman and Stanley Borenstein were named to a "Committee to Amend the Constitution." Their only duty will be to receive proposed amendments and submit an opinion to the council.

Also to be ratified by the student body at a near date will be the National Students Association constitution, which must be accepted by the school before Suffolk becomes a member of that organization. Copies of the constitution are to be passed out before voting, to enable students to vote more intelligently.

The Student Council has recommended to Mr. Henry Mellette, Director of Student Affairs, that a shooting club and an outdoor club be accepted as university functions. Both of these organizations were formed by petition to the council. The shooting club, which was represented by Herbert Goodman and John Carles, will use the Melford police range. Its activities will include both rifle and pistol shooting. The Outdoor club has been required by the council to submit a constitution when and if that organization decides to become a permanent university activity.

Lost and Found
December 2 was announced by Laurence Rand president of the day of Student Council elections. Stanley Borenstein still heads a committee in charge of collecting. Also named were William Robinson and Richard Carson.

The council announced the establishment of a law and fight department and a Western football team, both at Harvard. He is in the old Student Council offices (near room 22) on the second floor.

How The NSA Was Born

In August, 1946 a meeting of the World Student Congress was called by the British and Czechoslovakian student groups. The U.S. did not have a national student organization. As a consequence, the American delegates to Prague were composed of fifteen students who represented existing national collegiate groups and ten for fourteen class days, reads as follows:

While in Europe, these delegates were impressed by the activities of national student unions of other countries as contrasted with the complete absence of such undertakings in the U.S. and realized the dire need for a national student group in the U.S.

Upon their return, these twenty-five students in consultation with some national youth groups, decided to call a "conference of American students to solidify campus opinion on the desirability of forming a national student organization for the U.S."

This convention met at the University of Chicago, December 28, 30, 1947. Three hundred colleges and universities were officially represented. The National Constitution Committee was set into operation to lay the groundwork for the future Constitutional Convention, which was held August

Ruth Mack, Globe Fashion Artist Guest At S.U. Closs

Looking as pretty and demure as her cartoon creation "Sally School Lassie," Miss Ruth Mack, daughter of the celebrated sports cartoonist, Gene Mack, was recently a guest of the Feature Article Writing Club at Suffolk.

Miss Mack, fashion artist for the Globe, was invited by Mr. Paul Kuehlend, feature writer for the Boston Globe and instructor of the course to give a personal interview which was to be written as a class assignment.

The blue-eyed blonde answered the questions thrown at her by the students and some of the answers she came up with were "I love the New Look," "Hulk stockings are super," "My first hate are heels."

The Red Sox will win the 1948 pennant with Joe McCarthy at shortstop, Ted Williams at first base, and Ted Williams and Ted Williams at first base. B.C. is her favorite college football team although Bill Marquette, former Brown U. and Harvard, is her favorite. She wants a family after marriage, preferably a baseball team.

"Welcome Home Fireman Kenny"

Every Journalism instructor at Suffolk is a professional newspaperman and the staff includes two former City Editors, a Night City Editor, an ace rewrite man and a popular feature writer.

The ace rewrite man is "Herb" Kenny of The Boston Post. When forest fires swept thousands of acres in Maine, Kenny was ordered north to cover the story. He was away from Newspaper Row and his Suffolk classroom for a week, covering major disaster at Kennebecport, Portland and Bar Harbor. When he returned he found on his Suffolk blackboard this message: "Welcome Home, Fireman!"

S.U. LIBRARY OVERRUN BY HUNGRY HOBOES

Hobo Dance To Be Followed With Gala Affair At Copley Plaza Thanksgiving Eve

BY C. K. AVERY

Over 200 tall, short, heavy, light, and other untitled type hoboos, tramped into S.U.'s once quiet and dignified library Saturday night, November 1st, for a hobo jamboree. It was one of those dreary affairs in which couples came dressed in their trampiest looking duds.

Twisted cigarette and cigar stubs protruded from red-painted, jaunting lips. Top hats, that had once seen their glory, rested precariously on bobbing heads. Colorful patches contrasted an interesting spectacle in clothing material that was recklessly draped over attendant hoboos.

Diana Parich came dressed in the fascinating French style of red, beret, hip-high skirt (short).

Bob Mahoney and his 5-piece combo gave forth with a bouncy rhythm that kept the hoboos jumping all night.

During the dancing, baskets of apples were placed in various sections of the hall which couples thought were free for the taking. As soon as a hobo would take an apple, appointed attendants would whisk them into a propped-up jail where the hobo and his partner had to remain until their finished eating the apple.

Joe Clancy had arrested many for apple-stealing that the walls of the jail bulged to a breaking point.

The serious case of the night happened to be the stealing of a whole basket of apples.

Sheriffs searched in vain, finally discovering the culprit to be one Mr. Fox. Curled up in the base drum, Fox was innocently enjoying the juicy fruit as the sheriffs closed in on him for the arrest.

S.U. Trio

George Karavassilis grouped all attendants about the microphone and invited them to sit on the highly polished S.U. Library floor to witness a floor show.

A trio tramped out to the spotlighted mike and the show was on with Phyllis Terrazano, Ed Pearl and George Karavassilis singing "My Heart Belongs to a Hobo." They elicited so well that they

Brooks School Invades State House Grounds

It seemed peculiar to see pretty "hug" babies during fresh milk out of nipped bottles. Even more peculiar was it to hear dispersed ladies making such head-on goodness baby-talk. Yet on Friday night, October 18th, the S.U. "Commas" (the name of the State House is privileged to use) was invaded by such babies from the neighborhood Brooks School for Girls.

The "merry" Brooks girls chose to romp out in their best baby clothes to celebrate "Baby Day," a form of initiation for freshmen. Veteran students in Suffolk, cer-

APPOINTMENTS

The acquisition of a larger, qualified group of instructors has already been a major point in S.U.'s program of improving its collegiate standing. The Journal will come two of the new members of the faculty whose appearance on the roster will undoubtedly help it in its accreditation goal.

Dr. Raymond J. Murphy, a native New Yorker, was educated at St. John's, Columbia, Michigan and Harvard. He received the degrees of B.S., M.A., LL.B. and Doctor of the Science of Jurisprudence.

Because Dr. Murphy has a definite taste for glittering adjectives, we will attempt to describe his accomplishments with the eloquence of nouns and verbs. He was an instructor and an administrative assistant at St. John's. In the business world, he has held the position of assistant to a New York railroad executive, partner in a law firm and member of the New York, Massachusetts, and Federal bars. In the army he was

Thanksgiving Day Dance To Be In Copley Plaza

Swinging into line in the midst of the festive bustle, Suffolk is heading up the holiday with the Second Annual Thanksgiving Dance. This gala event is to be held in the magnificent Copley-Plaza ballroom from 8:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. on Wednesday evening, November 26th. Pete Cutler and his orchestra will be the music-makers.

This will be the biggest and most expensive informal affair the Social Club has ever attempted, but we are confident in anticipating a large turnout with many faculty and alumni members there.

Here is an opportunity for you to enjoy an evening of dancing in the distinguished Copley-Plaza for only $2.40 per couple. And just to make sure that you are able to attend the dance, the tickets are now on sale at the book store, the library, the bursar's office, the canteen, and from various clubs.

AVC To Distribute Medals To Vets

Suffolk University's AVC chapter held its term election of officers. Those elected were: John W. Stewart (CJ), Chairman, Spencer B. Sterne (CLA), Vice Chairman, Samuel B. Cinnamon (Law Sch.), Recording Secy, Rose Zorfas (Law Sch.), Corresponding Secy, Albert J. Limer (CBA), Treasurer, Jack Smith (Law Sch.), retiring chairman, and Ed Masterman (PL), were elected to the executive committee.

Chapter 888 has outlined a plan for distributing Victory Medals and American Defense Medals to the eligible Veterans in the school. The requirements for the medals will be the presentation of the veteran's original discharge papers. A poll has been made of the veterans in the school to determine in what category they fall, Army, Navy or Marines.

Committees have already been appointed to launch the publicity and ticket selling for this bang-up occasion. George Ingraham and Joseph Clancy are co-chairmen of the ticket committee. The advertising committee consists of Morton Feinberg and Lois Leyner. Heading the invitation committee is Charles Ryan assisted by Beatrice Butler. With the proper spirit of cooperation amongst the students there should be no great difficulties in making this dance a rousing success. The Social Club plans to unveil a new huge school banner and give away another door prize (not a live turkey either).

The holiday is zooming in on you and the corridors are noisy with the talk of Thanksgiving. Join in. Begin by buying your ticket now. Tickets will not be sold at the door.

30' to September 7, 1947, at the University of Wisconsin.

This convention was attended by 1,000 students representing the student bodies of over 350 colleges from all parts of the U.S.

During the eight day convention, a constitution for this new organization was ratified and a program of activities for the coming year drafted and accepted.

The most significant aspect of this new organization is that the collegiate delegates meeting in Madison came, not as representatives of any particular group or clubs on their campus, but rather as official delegates from their student body.

As stated in the preamble of the constitution which the convention adopted, the NSA aims to (1) secure and maintain academic freedom and the rights of students; (2) stimulate the development of democratic self government; (3) foster better educational standards, methods, and facilities; (4) work for the improvement of student social, cultural, and physical welfare; and (5) promote international rights regardless of sex, religion, political beliefs, or economic circumstances.

The leading educators, also recognizing the need for an organization of this type, have pledged their aid in the promotion of its programs.

President Truman in his letter to the constitutional convention of the NSA said: "Our American faith in education requires no apology or defense. We must, however, make certain that the programs of our educational institutions serve most effectively the needs of our democratic society. We should, therefore, welcome hopefully the formation of an organization that has, as one of its prime objectives, a constructive effort to improve the quality of the services in institutions of higher education. I congratulate your group on the opportunity that lies before it."

Meers, Jack Warner and Adolph Menou who are very jappy in their manner. I would suggest to lay out the cabbage for their advertising. The only person in the room who is not a Communist is the man who is going to try who seems at all sincere - Mickey Moose. At the time this was said, the door opened and proven fact has come out of the investigation now in progress in the House of Representatives Investigating Committee. Every statement is simply, "I think he is a Communist, I think he is toward the party line."

The farcy of the whole situation is that the Communist, blaming me is the biggest advertisement the Communists ever had. I am not going to stop, I am trying to prove that the Communists have filtered into a major portion of our country. I am trying.

First its labor, then the Veterans organizations, the public schools, the colleges, the maritime service, now the movies, the news, the Old Folks Home.

Now I would suggest politicians to take a Communist pamphlet, read it aloud the people and who used this communist fetish once heard, to the left while they sneak into office through the door on a

Communism as a theory, theology, or economic principle is absolutely no good. Furthermore, to get away from the doctrine preached in the U.S., both by the communists and the myopic individuals who are forever calling names and exaggerating conditions, the communists in the United States are not half so strong as they were in 1932, based on the electoral vote, the National

In 1932, according to this vote there were 102,991 communists or communist-minded people in the country. In 1936, by the same source of statistics, their number had dropped to 80,159. In the 1940 elections they were down to

In 1944 the communists were on the inactive status as an organization, so their vote went into the column called "Others" which includes everybody that voted for Joe Deaks and his grandmother. This column only came to 216,219 votes. These figures do not speak well for the communists or the scapegoating groups who use it as a basis for an inquisition to des-

Let certain groups figure this out. Under their reactionary administration communism was at its highest peak, thriving on the soft underbelly of depression. They were replaced by a spirit of progressive liberalism, and communism declined. They attained control of the legislative organ once again and according to their own accusations and actions communism is again on the upcomer.

The pay off is that they appropriate eleven million dollars to carry on their witch hunt. That eleven million dollars could help two thousand GE's build two thousand GI homes. This is a tangible way of stopping the

Yes, if certain legislators tried legislating for the people instead of the vote, communism would have as much chance in the U.S. as a snowball would in the proverbial I suppose we'll get it again in '48." You know, "Vote Republican or Vote Communist."

EDITORIALS

In a college we find a cross-section of human nature. Our first concern is with that portion of human nature termed "indifference." We go on from there.

Indifference in a college is unexplainable—unexcusable. How can a student be indifferent to his own future? If he is, then we must turn to another word—stupidity.

Stupidity is not measured by poor marks so much as it by naive unconcern. *

indifference and stupidity point to two factors: (1) Complete unawareness of what college has to offer. (2) Complete unawareness of what should be offered to college. If the student would only remember that whatever he does in college, whatever he accomplishes, goes down on his record. If he would only remember that this record of grades and activities goes where he goes, that he cannot elude it. If he would only remember that this record will be subject to keen appraisal, and that it must not be found wanting in any respect.

Perhaps then the student will re-evaluate himself and snap out of his lethargy. Perhaps then he will realize that he has been walking through the school, but has seen nothing—that he has sat in on classes but has heard nothing—that he has spoken to others but has said nothing—that he has received an education but has learned nothing—that with all he has done, he has done nothing. Perhaps then he will realize that he must make college part of himself, and himself part of college.

When the student can truthfully say to himself, "I know where I stand. I know where I'm going. I know how to get there," he will have opened a new outlook. He will have discovered that there is a life to college, an incentive to college, a destination to college. He will have found that college is not a disdainful immobility, but a sincere and helpful friend—a good friend.

LEST WE FORGET

Let us pause to think on the eve of the day when we honor those who died that we might live. The men who fell in the desert sands of Tunisia, the sloping beaches of Anzio and Normandy, the coral reefs of Tarawa, the rotting jungles of Saipan, and the fields and forests of Bastogne and Huertegen.

These men died that we might live in a nation and a world based on an ethical, theological, and judicial concept that all men have a right to the attainment of life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

What a terrible thing that virtually on the eve of the day set aside to honor these men, the halls of Congress are defiled by political inquisitors who unconstitutionally and undemocratically strive to destroy the sacred rights of the living and the honor of the dead.

Congressman J. Parnell Thomas had a point in his inquisition. A sound political propaganda point. If you throw enough mud against the wall, some of it's bound to

It stuck!

It will stick even better when the child learns how to turn in his parents to the authorities for expressing a view other than that prescribed by his government!

Yes, when these men died a fanatical man was screaming, "Today Germany is ours, tomorrow the whole world."

Did it sound like, "Today the committee is ours, tomorrow it will be yours?"

We of the colleges hope that our dead have not died in vain.

KERENSKY PLEADS BALANCE FOR OUR TROUBLED WORLD

By HIRSH M. KRENSKY

We must unite and have a greater understanding in order to destroy communist aggression. By this means, and by this means only, will you kill the germ of a third world war. These were the dramatic words of Alexander Kerensky, the one-time premier of a Russian democratic state.

were called back for an encore. A one-little fluster about the musical entertainment with popular piano renditions.

The highlight of the evening affair was the presentation of prizes.

Prizes Given

A jug of caviar (a hobo delight) as first prize, went to Philipa Terzian, dressed in lacy neck shirt and blouse, and to Myron Morgan in top hat and ruffled patches.

Second prize, vitamin pills, went to Ruth Vign and Joe Hagler, as the shortest couple present.

Third prize, a sack, went to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marple as the tallest couple.

To the heaviest couple went the fourth prize of champagne cream which John Duff and Mary Duff began to sip over an overcast night.

John Duff and Mary Duff were prize number five, a set of bean weights for being the lightest couple present. Ann was really flattered.

Jack Wallace trumped his prize 14 shoes up to the mule to receive the sixth prize for wearing the second shoes.

Prize number seven, a bottle of Aika-Bender which was promptly used, went to Rogerbert Anna Finkel, for being the girl who would go best with a jug of corn beer.

Richard House received the eighth prize for being the fellow with the most ridiculous clothes.

Joe Clancy received the ninth prize, a set of bells, for being the signal for whoredoms.

The tenth and final prize went to pretty Ann Johnson, the girl with the most ridiculous clothes.

Directly after prizes were given, all were invited to tramp to the refreshment stand where dozens of doughnuts and slices of cake were consumed by famished hobs.

Irvin Samit, Joe Clancy, Charlie Ryan, pretty Connie Compton, and others, tirelessly set the hobo guests with refreshments.

When it was discovered that the doughnuts disappeared too quickly for normal consumption, all searched dark corners for a searchlight pointed about in the place, atmosphere which was unbecomingly muffled out for apples, but doughnuts as well.

Faculty Members Present

Mock marriage licenses were handed out, the hobo guests began to live by the following terms: (1) The tramp must prepare the hobo food every evening. (2) The tramp must not pass any hobo in the street that are with teeth.

EXCLUSIVE INSIDE INTERVIEWS

By Walter F. Gallagher

Peter Alexandrovich Sorokin of Harvard University not only engineered the teach necessary to topple the Czarist regime at Archangel in the Fall of 1918, but also predicted World War II as early as 1920 in his own written work, "Crusis of Our Age."

Voluntarily, foot-noted in every language, he himself can read the Slavic languages as well as English, German, French, and as he modestly proposed, "Foreign if condemned to death could read the respective death sentence even in Spanish."

Banished from Russia in 1922 when the freshly tailored purges were really sharp—a cold fur coat communication of a world figure actually put the opposite.
